2. GENERAL INFORMATION

2.0 Destination Malta

The history of Malta is a long and colourful one dating back to the dawn of civilisation.

The Maltese Islands went through a golden Neolithic period, the remains of which include the mysterious temples dedicated to the goddess of fertility. Later on, the Phoenicians, the Carthaginians, the Romans and the Byzantines all left their traces on the Islands.

In 60 A.D. St Paul was shipwrecked on the island while on his way to Rome and brought Christianity to Malta.

The Arabs conquered the islands in 870 A.D. and left an important mark on the language of the Maltese. Until 1530 Malta was an extension of Sicily: the Normans, the Aragonese and other conquerors who ruled over Sicily also governed the Maltese Islands. It was Charles V who bequeathed Malta to the Sovereign Military Order of St John of Jerusalem, which ruled over Malta from 1530 to 1798. Following the Great Siege of 1565, the Knights took Malta through a new golden age, making it a key player in the cultural scene of 17th and 18th century Europe. The artistic and cultural lives of the Maltese Islands were injected with the presence of artists such as Caravaggio, Mattia Preti and Favray who were commissioned by the Knights to embellish churches, palaces and auberges.

In 1798, Napoleon Bonaparte took over Malta from the Knights on his way to Egypt. The French presence on the islands was short-lived, as the English, who were requested by the Maltese to help them against the French, blockaded the islands in 1800.

British rule in Malta lasted until 1964 when Malta became independent. The Maltese adopted the British system of public administration, education and legislation.

Modern Malta became a Republic in 1974. The foreign military bases on the island closed down permanently in 1979. Malta joined the European Union in May 2004 and the Eurozone in January of 2008.

Valletta

With its age-old bastions, ornate architecture, and bustling cobbled streets, still very much in action today, Valletta is the ideal amalgamation of history and modern life. Aptly coined in 2018 as the European Capital of Culture, there is tons to see and do in this spectacular City, founded in the Sixteenth Century by the Knights of St John.

Whether gazing at the Three Cities from the breath-taking Barrakka Gardens, dining at one of its outstanding eateries, or drooling over the Caravaggio in St John's Co-Cathedral, the only stressful thing about a trip to Valletta is trying to fit it all in!

Mdina and Rabat are two popular towns in Malta and each is admired for very different reasons.

Mdina is one of Malta's most popular tourist destinations because there's no place like it anywhere. Sitting on top of a hill overlooking large parts of Malta, it's a small town, rich in history and fortified by tall bastion fortifications. It's filled with centuries-old buildings that have been well maintained throughout the ages.

Wandering through its narrow streets and alleys, Mdina genuinely feels like history coming to life.

Rabat, the village that's located on Mdina's doorstep (and once considered to be its suburb), on the other hand, is known for its quiet, more rural character and natural beauty. Apart from offering a few key museums and points of interest, Rabat is also known for one of the few forested areas the country knows, at Buskett Gardens, the entrance to which can be found on the outskirts of the village.

A typical Maltese town that still hosts traditional village festas, there's a lot of character to discover on a leisurely walk through its streets.

More information can be found on <https://www.visitmalta.com/en/a/history/>.

2.1 Customs Procedures

In Malta, the same customs regulations are applied as for EU.

Malta is a member of the Schengen Area and hence no special documents are needed for citizens of European Union countries, Liechtenstein and Iceland. A valid passport is required for a stay of up to 3 months for all tourists except citizens of European Union countries, Iceland and Liechtenstein. Participants from Montenegro need a visa only if they don't have a biometric passport.

2.2 Currency

The Euro is in use and is equivalent to US$ 1.08 as on 14/05/2023.

2.3 Electricity

Electricity in Malta is 230V A/C with 3-pin European Plug.

2.4 Telephones

The international code for Malta is +356 followed by an eight-digit number.

Ambulance 112. Police 119

2.5 Health Situation in Malta & Medical Services

No systematic health checks are needed. Health services are provided by the public and the private sectors.

2.6 Medical Services & Emergencies

Mater Dei Hospital in Msida is the main public general hospital serving the whole island. Major emergencies can be dealt with at the A&E (Accident & Emergency) Department of the Hospital. Holders of EHIC card will receive free emergency care. This does not apply to consultations or non-emergency treatment or investigations. A&E is very busy on most days and waiting times can be long.

Hence, we have made arrangements with the leading private hospital on the island, St James Hospital in Sliema. All services can be provided here in a very timely manner against payment. It is advisable to have private medical insurance cover for all the contingent besides the EHIC card.

Examples of fees charged at SJH are as follows:

1. MRI – €630
2. CT Scan – €456
3. Ultrasound - €186
4. Physiotherapy – €60 per session
5. Consultations with specialists (all specialities) – Consultants charge their own fees
6. Emergency Dental consultation and dental care – Dentist charges fees according to treatment required

Prices are approximate and subject to slight variations.

Direct settlement with private insurances is preferred if this information can be provided in advance to St James Hospital.

The contact person for services at St James Hospital is:

Graziella Lovegrove
Mobile number: +356 9948 4029.
Email: graziella.lovegrove@stjameshospital.com

2.7 Insurance

It is recommended that you provide for an adequate insurance policy (health insurance, accident, and sickness, third party including sickness, third party liability) or E111 card,

2.8 Climatic Conditions

Statistics of temperatures from 1st to 7th of June as issued by the Meteorological Office of Malta

Temperatures in Degrees Celsius
June 1 st to June 7 th	highest	lowest	average
2020	31	24	27.5
2021	28	25	26.5
2022	29	25	27.0
2023	30	26	28.0

2.9 Weather and Ambient Temperatures

The weather in Malta at the end of May and early June is usually sunny and somewhat humid, and with a UV index of 10. Daytime temperatures vary between 24 to 28 C. It is therefore very important to take precautions for sunburn, heat injuries and dehydration.
